Poem

I heard him preach from Genesis,
 "God told Adam, he could eat from all the trees in the garden including the tree of life but the tree of knowledge of good and evil he wasn't to touch"
 I thought to myself,
 God wanted Adam to be content with just knowing Him
 But Adam wanted to have something more
 The knowledge seemed like an exciting thing to have,
 Man has always wanted something more
 Our fleshly nature is to always want something more
 But God intends that we be content with Him; as our first Love
 To love him like children,
 A love with no use for reason and rhyme
 A trust without questions
 That's all he wants from us
 Because that is the love he has for us
 To love him like teenagers, in love for the very first time
 Like a fish on a hook
 With that dreamy far away look.
 Always on the phone, waiting for a message or a call from him
 He is the first to know what happens to us,
 The bad, the good, the exciting
 That is all he wants from us
 Our sweet first love
 The girl in the corner

Praise the Lord Jesus Christ, I bless the Lord for you all. I count it all an honor to write to you as I share with you something to do with God's love for us all.

You will however allow me let you know that what you're going to read from here is not equivalent to a drop of a fraction of what God's love is, because its so wide, it's beyond human exhaustion. Let's go to scripture....

Joh 15:13 KJV Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

And again Joh 3:16 KJV For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

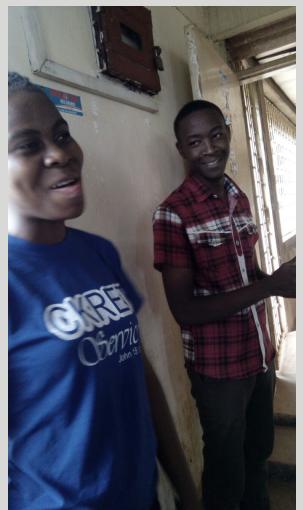

God loved us so much, not because he wanted anything from us, but because he wanted to give us something that would get us from our continual death. He loved us and gave us Jesus Christ his only son that we may be made

VERSE TO PONDER

Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.

everything that he (Jesus) is. Some Christians have not come to very experience of why Jesus died on the cross, and that's sad. Apostle Paul told the Corinthians not to receive the Grace of God in vain, I mean to some Jesus' death on the cross has not had an effect in their lives, they're still the good old simple students who are full of fear in their hearts, who still have imaginations of failure, who have not fully embraced the sacrifice and atonment for sins (they still consider themselves sinners) and some are living at the mercies of the devil. All these things that Jesus died to take away are still existent in Christians' lives. The Bible says in Isaiah 53:5 that he took our sorrows, our griefs, the punishment for our peace was upon him, and by his stripes we're healed.

All this is because of God's love bodily expressed by the sacrificial death of Jesus Christ on the cross. That's what our opening scripture says, that "a man lay down his life for his friends". He literally put it down for his friends to pick it up. It's high time you picked the life that was laid down for you. It's a life of joy unspeakable, happiness, overflowing peace, a divinely healthy life, an excellent academic lifestyle. For the Bible says in 2 Timothy 1:7 that we have not received the spirit of the world to fear, but the spirit of power, love and sound mind. Get your mind onto the things God has afore ordained for you walk in, stop using your experiences for teaching (unless they carry an experience of God's love), stop opposing truth, looking unto Jesus the Author and perfector of our faith.

It's simple, receive the word of God with readiness of the heart, when it says that you're incorruptible, believe it and it will work for you, when it says that Jesus was made sin for us that we may be made the righteousness of God in him, receive it and it will work for you.

All this is because a man lay down his life for his friends, why won't you pick it up and start walking in the experience of " 1Jn 4:17 KJV Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.

Hallelujah, all because the man Jesus Christ died on the cross.

Meet Mama Elec/Tel 4 class Fellowship

by @ Aber Eunice

Q: Hi Charlene, how are you?

A: I'm okay, how are you?

Q: I am fine. You look radiant! "Interjection: Thank you, you too". So, what's the secret?

A: It's just Christ, yeah... When I met Christ people started telling me those things. Before I used to not get those compliments. "Interjection: For real!!! No, like seriously. They used to just say I am a happy person, and I guess Christ was working in me, but when I met him, it got reflected.

Q: Your fellowship sounds really exciting? "Interjection: Yeah, it's fun!!!" So, what do you do? Other activities aside from fellowship?

A: {giggles} Hmm, let me see. We had evangelism last semester at Novia House and Muhika hostels. We hold a grand birthday party for our classmates every semester (apart from third year where we share both physical and spiritual food). We also visit our classmates individually and fellowship and pray with them (We started that this year). We alternate these visits with our prayer meetings.

Q: I heard the class fellowship is part of CEDAT fellowship? "Interjection: Yes it is." So, how do you connect with the CEDAT fellowship?

A: Actually, I know it is under CEDAT fellowship, but when I started as Mama, I was a little unclear about the authorities above me, and I was not sure where to report. But recently, Vivian; one of our fellowship committee members; enlightened me about that.

Q: Thank you so much Charlene, for your time. Wish you all the best in your walk as Mama. And may God bless your work.

A: Thank you. You too
